PEACE CONFERENCE TO RECONVENE SATURDAY

Turks to Give Demands of Allies Consideration in the Meanwhile-Demands Call For Cession of Large Strip of European Turkey, Aegean Islands and All Turkish Rights in Island of Crete-Financial Proposals Withheld.

London, Dec. 13—After several days of preliminary skirmishing in accordance with the cherished traditions of Oriental diplomacy the Turkish delegates today faced the real attack of the settling of the meetings of the peace conference which has as an object the settling of the war between the Balkan allies and Turkey.

The victorious allies laid their most important cards on the table. These were in the form of territorial conditions which they had agreed to impose on the Ottoman empire.

The allies did not reveal today the financial proposals which they will male to Turkey, reserving them for a future meeting. Before the allies presented their specifications today the Turks announced that their government was prepared to proceed with the negotiations aleaving the question of the re-victualling of Adrianople for discussion between Turkey and Bulgaria. They abandoned their previous request to provision Scutari and Janiana.

Turks Senk Further Delay. The formal conference lasted only a quarter of an hour. The Turks listened to the proclamation of the fate of their European compire without formal comment and asked for an adjournment until Saturday to consider the allies demands.

ents were listening to the denial of the charges of dynamiting, the boy was romping through the lobby with an early supply of Christmas presents.
"If after this long trial you must convict somebody," said Attorney William N. Harding, "don't convict William Bernhardt, for he is an industrious iron worker and has a wife to support. He has worked hard all his life and has raised a family. Blowing life and has raised a family. Blowing non-union jobs at night or resorting to violence in a strike is not characterisviolence in a strike is not characteristic of a man who raises a family. But, I say, if you must convict somebody by the name of Bernhardt, convict his little boy. Send the little boy to the penitentiary. He might stand it, but Bernhardt, with a wife, could not."

Speaking for all the defendants, Mr. Harding referred to letters taken from the iron workers' international headquarters in Indianapolis, upon which the government charges a dynamite conspiracy, was directed through the mall. Mr. Harding said the letters remained in the headquarters for six mail. Mr. Harding said the letters remained in the headquarters for six months after John J. McNamara, the secretary, had been locked up at Los Angeles, and none of the writers of the letters ever went to Indianapolis to recover them.

A column of 800 men marching against the rebels at Ascuncion, was defeated, it was announced. The federal commander, General Jose Bianco, was taken prisoner, Confirmed by American. Confirming this report, S. D. Ambrose, an American hotel man of Columbus, N. M., arrived here today. He was in Ascuncion at the time of its capture last Wednesday and talked with General Salazar, whose forces took the town. While there a messenger arrived directly from General Orozco with a etter from the rebel leader saying that he had taken Casas Grandes and defeated Blanco. Gen. Blanco Entrapped.

Blanco was entrapped, the official report says, in a canon north of Casas Grandes. Aside from capturing many rifles and much ammunition, the rebcles secured two cannon. Details of the battles are tacking but Casas Grandes was taken easily. Grozeo writes, as the federals left only 200 men to protect the town.

Rebels Control Railway. Bystaking Casas Grandes the scene of a hard struggle in the Madero rev-clution in which the rebels were repulsed, the Orozco revolutionists con-trol the Mexican Northwestern railway, which runs between Juarez on the border, and Chihuahua City, the state capita. The territory tributary to the American railway which in-cludes the Pearson Syndicate's lumbering towns of Pearson and Madera and the San Pedro mining district also is brought under rebel rule.

Probably No Foreigners Injured. The railway wires are not operating west from Chihuahua City now below Joares. No railway confirmation of the fowns' fall could be secured. The sttack was made on Old Casas Granges, the largest town in the district. The railway officers and American homes are at the new town some miles away and it is believed that no foreigners were injured.
